Shana Tovah!

Ma-Tov 2011, our 27th camp season, has been awesome! Both campers and staff have made wonderful new friends and have acquired new skills under the guidance of specialty staff and division heads. A great Yasher Koach to our Head Counselor, Suzie Marder, whose endless energy, patience and warmth inspires us all. We thank our dedicated staff for the memorable moments, learning, caring and joy they transmitted all summer long.

Our best wishes to the entire Ma-Tov family for a healthy and successful New Year.

Awards Ceremony

Tension mounted as Ma-Tov Day Camp's 2011 League season drew to a close. Campers were eagerly awaiting the results as to which teams won. The final results were announced during a Grand Leagues Ceremony which included the distribution of trophies to all participants.

The sports staff prepared an entertaining video and slide show.

We are all extremely proud of the efforts made by each and every camper. Truly, every camper went away a winner for their camaraderie, sportsmanship and the new skills they learned.

Color War!

With passionate cheers and lots of energy, Colorwar 2011 was a blast! The teams of Dibur (red) and Ma'aseh (blue) did a fantastic job in energizing the camp in a memorable color war experience.

The action started on Friday, with a surprise break out during the Magic Show at the Shabbat Oneg. Mobilizing immediately, teams quickly learned their Hebrew songs and team cheers. Ma-Tov was transformed into a sea of red and blue. Monday and Tuesday were bursting with activities, competitions and opportunities for campers to excel and earn points for their teams.

In chinuch, sports competition, cheering, banners and Divrei Torah, team pride was evident as intense efforts produced incredible results. Even the counselors competed for their teams, in exciting obstacle courses, races and other fun challenges.

Learning about friendship and showing team pride made each camper a winner. Everyone was treated to an ice cream celebration in honor of their valiant efforts.

Congrats to the entire camp for their sportsmanship and beautiful middot!

Ma-Tov Memories

Ma-Na-Im News

"Row, row, row your boat, gently down the stream..." Wait! That's not a stream! And it's certainly not the Delaware River! But, heavy rains and high waters are not a deterrent for our Ma-Na-Im campers. Though the long-awaited trip was canceled due to the weather, all campers nonetheless had a special day creating a 'virtual' Delaware rafting trip. Boarding the busses, singing songs, eating their picnic lunch and getting sprayed with a stream of water...all without leaving Ma-Tov! The only thing missing was a 'virtual' George Washington to join us! Kudos to these enthusiastic campers and the creative staff for not letting the rain dampen their spirits!
